Introducing LeftOvers: A Fusion of Artistic Creations

Long ago in the studio of New York-based fine artist Filippo ioco, a captivating discovery unfolded. Amidst his creative process, ioco's keen eye was drawn to a striking crimson splatter on his studio wall. This simple yet intriguing form and hue ignited a surge of inspiration within him.

Diverging from traditional techniques. Instead of relying on a conventional easel, he affixes his canvas or paper directly to his studio wall.

During the meticulous act of painting, ioco's brushstrokes, washes, rubs, and even thrown pigments adorn the surfaces, generating a profusion of leftover paint on the surrounding wall. Over time, these accumulated layers of color have transformed the wall into a mesmerizing tapestry, encompassing vibrant hues and evocative imagery.

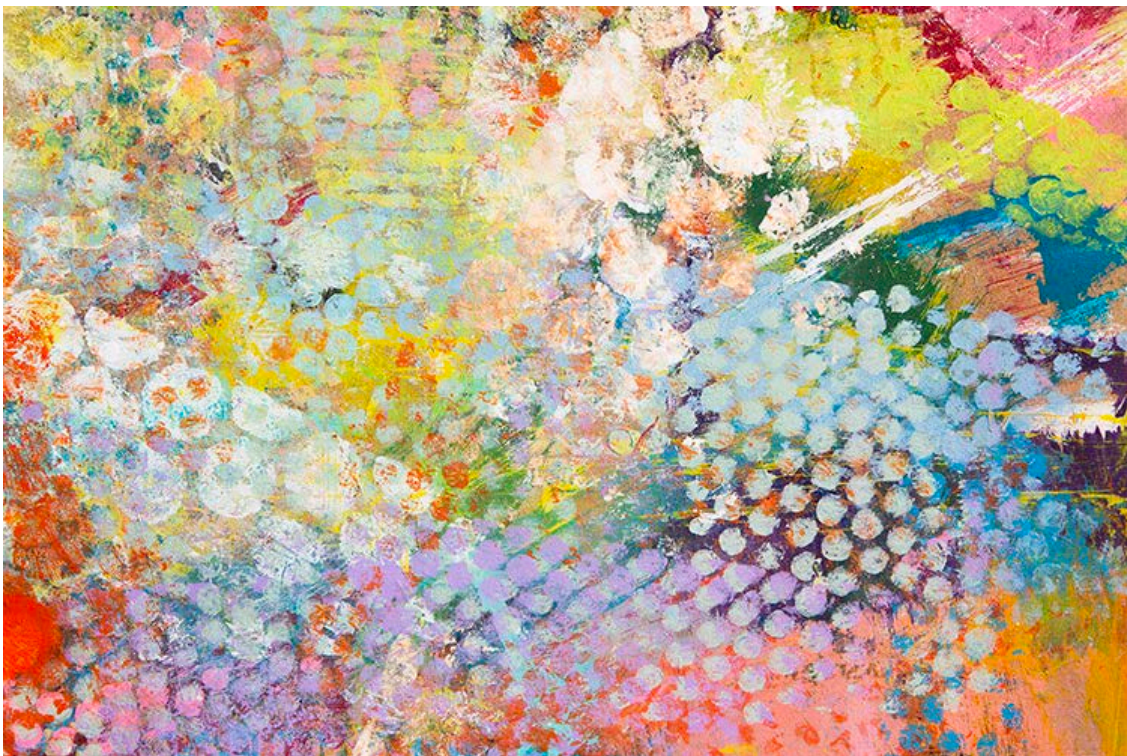

Seizing the opportunity, ioco zooms in and captures the raw essence of these captivating formations through the lens of the camera. The resulting images are then transformed into exquisite prints, meticulously rendered on paper, canvas, metal, and glass. Each print showcases the amalgamation of vivid colors and serene moods, serving as a visual feast for the discerning eye.

With LeftOvers, Filippo ioco unveils a fusion of artistic creations borne from magic, inspiration, and relentless dedication. Step into his world and immerse yourself in the allure of these evocative prints, destined to captivate art enthusiasts and connoisseurs alike.
