

BONER

issue #5 / June - July 2019

FREE

WORLD

L I F E S T Y L E M A G A Z I N E

LGBTI EROTICA-2019

Filippo ioco is one of the most outstanding and ground breaking Bodypainting artists of all time. It is his combination of experience, innovation and courage that has kept his work at the top for over two decades. His work has been featured in music videos, commercials, book covers, ad campaigns, printed media and such television shows as Larry King Live, Good Morning America and Ripley's Believe it or Not to name a few. For people familiar with the Bodypainting world he is an icon, and for those new to the industry he is an inspiration as well as a role model. Filippo ioco also an accomplished Fine Artist and Decorative Artist dedicates a large amount of his artistic energy to charity work worldwide.

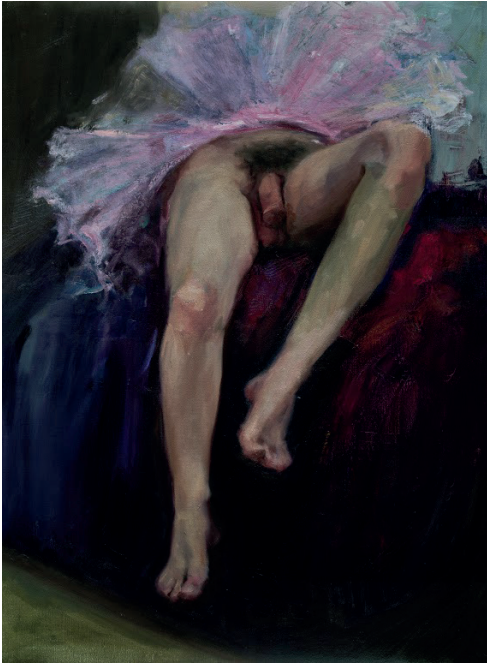

In 2017 Filippo opened his first studio & gallery in Barcelona, Spain. The Filippo ioco Studio & Gallery making it the first Bodypainting Gallery in the European Union. The gallery showcases Filippo's works as well as the artists he represents including Erotic Artist, Ali Franco.

When Filippo arrived to Barcelona, he approached (ACEGAL) the organizers of Barcelona PRIDE and overseers of everything LGBT in Catalunya, to do something together thus the LGBTI Erotica was born as an official side event of Barcelona PRIDE. The first exhibition in 2018 was a big success with 22 artists and 198 visitors. 2019 is expected to be an even bigger exhibition with 28 national and international artists participating.

LGBTI Erotica is a group exhibition of professional artists from different nations working in Erotic Art. Mediums include (painting, illustration, digital art, photography, sculpture, video, print making, graphic design, fashion, bodypainting and live performances) catering to all LGBTI members.

To view and learn more about ioco's work visit:
www.Filippoio.com

Realistic
1980-1985
Kuo Jia

